

KC Bantam Tryouts

You have been released from the KC Bantam AAA tryout process. As a player you now have 2 options:

- 1. You are assigned to continue the tryout process with bantam AA – please check the KC website AA tryout lists tomorrow to find out your skate times for the AA tryouts.
- 2. For those players who choose to do so, they may participate in the citywide Bantam AAA draft – you must obtain a written temporary release form from KC (Bruce Fitzpatrick 780-777-9539) which authorizes the player to tryout for a spot on one of the other Edmonton clubs AAA teams. Once the form is signed the player has 7 days in which to try out for any clubs that will allow him to skate. If after the 7 days, the player has not been picked up one of the other clubs, the player returns to their assigned Bantam AA team to complete the tryout process.
  - a. Please note – it is very strongly recommended that the player skates with the KC Bantam AA team they are assigned to during this 7 day period when possible as coaches are making on going cuts throughout this period.

KC Bantam Tryouts

You have been released from the KC Bantam AA tryout process. Please note that prior to a player being released from the AA program – the coach from the other AA team was given an option to keep you as part of their roster and has declined that option. As a player you now have 2 options:

- 1. Players who are released will go directly into the Sabres program and begin their evaluations to be placed on a team. The Sabres Bantam director (Neil Lacombe) will contact you within a day or two to advise you of the first skate you will participate in.
